“YOU’VE GOT A FRIEND” – Choral concert featuring The Heart & Soul Singer and the Young Sudbury Singers

THE HEART & SOUL SINGERS and the YOUNG SUDBURY SINGERS will join forces on Saturday, April 28 to present “You’ve Got a Friend”, a special concert celebrating new beginnings. Guest musicians will include Jean-Yves Begin (saxophone), Iona Reed (piano), Brittany Goldsborough (bass), and Jack Broumpton (percussion).

The two choirs will perform a variety of repertoire in different styles, and join together to sing several pieces with their musical guests.

“This family-oriented choral concert is certain to appeal to audiences of all ages” said Ralph McIntosh, one of the producers. “The program will feature a mix of traditional and contemporary selections, all shared in celebration of friendship and the coming of spring.”

Ted Djaferis of The Heart & Soul Singers added: “This is the first time that we have shared the stage with the Young Sudbury Singers. We are all looking forward to singing together, uniting our voices in demonstration of music’s power to engage and inspire.”

The concert will be held on Saturday April 28, starting at 7 pm, at St. Andrew’s Place, 111 Larch St. in Sudbury. Admission is $15 for adults/seniors and $10 for children and youth; children 6 years old and under are admitted free.

Tickets are available at A & J Home Hardware, the Sudbury Theatre Centre, or from members of the participating choirs. Tickets can be reserved by contacting Ralph McIntosh at (705) 662 0115 or mcintor@gmail.com.
